Letter NO.609, dated the 7th March 1903, from the District Superintendent of Police, Thana, to the District Magistrate Thana.

To 9999
28.III.03.

I have the honour to inform you that on the 22nd ultimo, property as per accompanying list was found by the Thana Police in the possession of a stranger who gives his name as Raghunath Kamleshwar Sukul resident of Mamkhor, Taluka Gorakhpur in the Gorakhpur District. Raghunath being questioned by the Chief Constable of Bassein stated that it belonged jointly to himself and his mother-in-law Rupabai widow of Desiram Perdeshi residing at Mysore. Raghunath's friends wired to her to come and corroborate his statement. Accordingly Rupabai has since appeared before the Chief Constable of Bassein in this District and verifies the version of Raghunath in so far as that he is her son-in-law and that her husband having died in Mysore about 3 months ago she had authorised Raghunath to dispose of her ornaments. But there are certain discrepancies between the statements of the two and as both of them are not known in this District it is desirable to clear all doubts as to the legal possession of the property either by Raghunath or Rupabai. I would therefore request the favour of your communicating with the Mysore authorities through the necessary channels to find out whether Rupabai is known in Mysore to have any such property or is likely to have the same or whether any such property is known to have been stolen in that State.

Regarding certain ornaments attached by the Bassein Chief Constable on suspicion from one Raghunath Kamleshwar.

With reference to the correspondence ending with your No. 5068, dated 27th June last, I have the honour to inform you that the 1st class Magistrate of Bassein has ordered the property to be returned to Raghunath Kamleshwar but he has since left Bassein and a letter purporting to be signed by him has been received authorising the delivery of the said property to his cousin Ramkisore Sukul. As it is hardly safe to deliver valuables on the authority of a letter of this description I request the favour of your ascertaining from the Mysore authorities to whom Rupabai (the owner of the ornaments and mother-in-law of Raghunath) wishes the same to be delivered.
